

89-90

École française d'été

Université Concordia

3 juillet – 10 août 1990

Explore the French World next door

This summer, explore the French world of your Québec neighbour! French language and culture are vibrant and alive in this province of over 6 million people, 80% of whom are French-speaking. Indeed, Montreal is one of the world's largest French-speaking cities. To stay and study there will familiarize you with the heart of French civilization in North America.

The school, the university, the campus

The Concordia French Summer School, located on the spacious Loyola campus, is a division of the Département d'Études françaises and a member of the Association Québécoise des Écoles de Français. Courses are offered for regular university credit. Each summer for the past ten years, the school has played host to some 200 students who have enjoyed the use of the many academic, social and athletic facilities of Concordia University.

Live and learn in French

Each week-day, you will receive formal instruction from 9:30 to 12:30 and from 13:30 to 15:30. The afternoons will be devoted to workshops, conversation and to social activities, all in French.

Classes will be conducted by faculty members of the French Department of Concordia University who have a thorough knowledge of the theory of second-language learning and extensive teaching experience.

En français, s'il vous plait

All participants must undertake to speak French at all times. They will enjoy the support of their instructors during all activities.

Course offerings

The Summer School begins on July 3 and ends on August 10, 1990.

— 90 hours of classroom instruction.

— 60 hours of conversational activities.

Students are divided into five levels, from complete beginners to advanced. An initial assessment of the student's ability will be made to determine the appropriate level of study.

NIVEAU 1. FRAN 200-201 (6 credits)

This course is for students having no previous training in French. It includes a comprehensive introduction to basic structures and vocabulary and should enable students to acquire an ability to speak and understand simple conversational French. Both oral and written aspects of the language are presented, with special emphasis on oral skills.

NIVEAU II. FRAN 202-203 (6 credits)

This course is specially designed for students who have little knowledge of French and feel that a basic review would be beneficial. Both oral and written aspects of the language are presented, with special emphasis on oral skills.

NIVEAU III. FRAN 204-205 (6 credits)

Ce cours s'adresse aux étudiants ayant suivi soit 4 ans de français à l'école secondaire, soit deux ans de français à l'université ou au niveau collégial, ou l'équivalent. Par une étude et une pratique intensive des tournures du français courant, l'étudiant pourra acquérir l'aisance nécessaire à une communication orale et écrite spontanée. Le cours fournira également quelques aperçus sur le mode de vie des francophones.

NIVEAU III. FRAN 208 (6 credits)

(Culture et société québécoises par la chanson)

Cours intensif qui a pour but principal de permettre à l'étudiant de niveau intermédiaire de s'intégrer au milieu québécois, au moyen de discussion et d'activités dirigées par un professeur.

Pratique systématique du français en classe.

NIVEAU IV. FRAN 302-303 (6 credits)

Pour les étudiants qui ont déjà une bonne connaissance du français, mais qui désirent parfaire leur expression orale et écrite et leur connaissance du milieu québécois. Ce cours peut s'adapter aux besoins professionnels des participants.

You need to know

Who can apply?

- a) Those currently registered in a degree, certificate or diploma programme at Concordia University may apply for admission as regular students.
- b) Individuals registered in a degree programme in another Canadian university and who have received permission from their home institution may apply for admission as visiting students.
- c) Those not registered in a recognized university programme who are academically qualified to enter Concordia, or 21 years of age or over as of April 1, 1990, may apply for admission as independent students.

American and other international students must comply with Canadian immigration regulations and obtain the necessary passports where applicable. Further information will be sent with the application form.

Award of credit:

All courses are taken for credit. Concordia students will receive six university credits for the six-week period if they comply with university and department regulations. Others will receive transcripts which they can use for requesting credit-equivalents at their university or college.

There are no supplemental examinations.

Fees:

The amount shown below covers: Tuition, registration and student fees –

Fees: 6 weeks 650.00 Can. $ (payable on the first day of class)

All students must pay their transportation costs and bring enough pocket money for recreation and emergencies.

Medical Insurance:

All international students must have health and accident insurance coverage and produce proof thereof. Otherwise, they are required to subscribe to the University insurance plan:

Rates for 1990 JULY-AUGUST $ 75.00 – single (Carrier: Metropolitan Life)

Accommodation and Meals:

Out-of-town students may stay in the University residence in single or double rooms. As space is limited, rooms are offered on a “first come, first served” basis. There are several large parking lots on campus. A good selection of hot meals and cold snacks is provided in the cafeteria.

For reservations and prices for room and board, please write to:

Director of Residences
Concordia University
Loyola Campus Room HA-156
Montreal, Quebec, Canada H4B 1R6
Tel. (514) 848-4755

Possibility of accommodation with a francophone family:

HORIZONS-QUÉBEC
1221, rue St-Hubert
Montréal (Québec)
Canada H2L 3Y8
Tel. (514) 383-8980

How to apply

An application form and further information regarding registration, immigration regulations, course requirements, etc. may be obtained from:

Director, French Summer School
Département d'Études françaises
Concordia University, Loyola Campus
7141, Sherbrooke St. W.
Montréal, Québec H4B 1R6
Tel: (514) 848-7513

Deposit:

A non-refundable deposit of $75.00 (CDN), to be applied against tuition fees, must be mailed with your application in order to secure a place in the French Summer School.